BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

They Have a Wrestle With a Lot Claims-Resolutions Passed. The Board met in regular session yesterday at 10 o'clock, and proceeded to the examination of the monthly demands against the County Treasury. The demand of E. W. Springstead, for $9 70, for alleged expenses incurred in the arrest and return of a runaway boy, was held over for explanation, as it seems that the Constable has no legal claim against the county.

The bill of F. H. Wing, for $8 05, for marking a number of shirts, was held over for explanation, as the bill had been contracted on the order of a Supervisor.

Theodore Klaman, a patient at the County Hospital, appeared and asked the Board to pay his fare to San Francisco, where he was desirous of going to have an operation performed on his wrist, that had been injured some time since. He made this request as he was out of funds. Mr. Jackson had his attention called to this man some time ago, and on investigation found the applicant unworthy of any asistance.

The compensation granted to J. A. Si nons at the previous meeting of the Board or certain bridges he had constructed was seld over until Mr. Toll, who has something to say in the matter, has an opporinity to explain. A resolution drawn by W. H. Beatty, in reference to the refunding of Sacramento county bonds to the amount of $84,000, due this month, was unanimously adopted. It was an opinion as to the legality of the new bonds that are to be issued, and the time for opening bids for the same.

The demand of A. B. Bryant for $661 for oad work was held over for itemizing and The following resolution was then unanmously adopted:

Resolved. That the Sheriff of Sacramento county is hereby directed to serve all summons and processes that may be placed in his hands by the District Attorney without demanding In this case the Sheriff was instructed not o charge any fees for serving the papers in the case of A. M. Plummer against the obstructors of the grant line road. The Board informally discussed the proposition for a new register, but came to no conclusion, except that a new register was a necessity, and was demanded by every honest voter. Supervisor Ross will call up his resolution on this subject for consideration to-day and a lively debate is anticipated.

ENTERTAINMENT AND DANCE. Seventh Invitation Party Given by Court

Sacramento, A. O. F. Court Sacramento, No. 6861. Ancien Order of Foresters, gave their seventh annual invitation party at Turner Hall last evening, which was largely attended. It opened with the singing of the opening ode of the Order:

Our purpose undivided, A brotherhood of love

While from our vales and mountains. And every foreign shore, Shall rise one mighty peean Till time shall be no more. Then bless our noble Order, And may it ever stand, The bulwark of our land.

This was followed by an address by J. W Hughes. He reviewed the origin of the Order, its aims and benefits, giving a brief nistory of its success upon this coast, paricularly the Courts of this city. He said that Sacramento Court, since its organiza-tion in 1882, had paid out upwards of $2,700 n benefits, and over $4,000 in maintaining he Order, and some $200 for charity. In this city there are more than 500 Foresters in the three Courts-Capitol, Sacramento and Sutter. The number of Foresters throughout Europe and America are more than 900,000, and in its endowment fund i ranks seventh in the insurance societies of the world. His remarks were replete with interesting facts and data, and he closed by paying a high tribute to the Order for its nevolence and charity

Mrs. J. H. Platt and Miss Lizzie Platt sang a duet in fine voice and were recalled.

Messrs. Kliensorge and Nelson played a wither duel in fine style and were encored.

Miss Nellie Wright sang a solo and was Charles Eilerman played a cornet solo and the literary exercises were concluded by the singing by the entire audience of the osing ode of the order:

Good night! and may we ever part,

Good night! and may our spirits rest, By no unkindly thought oppress But with a happy consciousness Of an approving Providence.

The evening's festivities concluded with social dance. The committees were as Arrangements-Dr. F. G. Fay, Chas. B. Strong, J. Chas. Jones. Reception—Ed. H. McKee, E. J. Carlaw, N. Harvie, Geo. A. Washington, February 9th.-Manderson, from the Committee on Printing, reported a joint resolution for the disposition of un-distributed copies of the records of the reellion, reports of the tenth census and reports of the Public Land Commission. The resolution gave rise to a discussion, in the course of which Vest gave expresexpense of the Government, which books he could not give away. He could not trade them off, and he could not dispose of them unless he put them in the fire. The upper portion of the Capitol was crammed to the roof with books, and yet there was a continual stream of these publications pouring out of the Government Printing Office. The money might as well be taken out and thrown into the Potomac river. Teller admitted there was a great waste in that direction, but his experience was > Sherman thanked the gentlemen for the ecception accorded him. He said, referring to the Home Market Club: "I like the name, for it describes your principles. When you use the word 'home,' you mean your whole country. You use the phrase 'home market' to distinguish it from oreign market-not to exclude foreign market, but to emphasize your preference for a home market, as infinitely greater, more valuable, more productive than a foreign market. When I think of the contrast between our home market and the foreign market, in the magni-tude and proportions of the universal benefits of the one, and the comparative unimportance of the other, I am led to wonder why so many gentlemen of education and character are willing to endanger the wonderful development of our home industries and increase our foreign com I believe the best we can do for mankind is to do the best for our country.

"Lowell, who has been honored by a great party with its confidence and trust, places Cleveland above Grant, the great soldier of our country! Above Hayes, who certainly gave to the country a pure and excellent administration, and Lowell himself above Garfield, one of the most accomplished o American statesmen, and above Arthurin every respect a model gentleman, and a prudent and able President."

CLEVELAND'S TARIFF POLICY. Speaking of President Cleveland's policy, herman said: "The inevitable effect is increase importations at the expense and oss of our home market, especially to reduce the wages of all engaged in indus ries competing with foreign production His message creates alarm among business men at home, and gives joy and hope to every market in Europe.' REFERRING TO THE SURPLUS, Sherman remarked: "A surplus is a great deal better than a deficit. It has enabled us to perform the magnificent feat of Washington, February 9th.—Star service rapidly reducing the public debt, a policy which has excited the admiration of the greatest statesmen of E ng surplus was bequeathed to Cleveland by his predecessors, and was applied by them to the payment of the debt and to repeated eductions of the taxes. Certainly it will be if he checks that prosperity which enbles us to import goods and pay taxes.

STUPID OR WICKED FINANCERING. "But why is not this surplus applied to the payment or purchase of the public debt? Whose fault is it that it accumulates in the Freasury? Plainly the fault of Cleveland, whose Secretary of the Treasury is authoized to apply this surplus at any time to a reduction of the public debt. If he had followed the example of his predecessors he would weekly or monthly without proclamation or noise, hav purchased and retired the public debt un der the main provisions of existing laws But if the President preferred to reduce the he not apply to Congress to diminish taxa-tion without disturbing home production know that at the last Congress taxation uld have been reduced but for the desire of the Speaker of the House and President o strike at home industries rather than to educe taxation.

You may ask me what I have to say. ABOUT TARIFF REFORM.

answer that I am decidedly in favor of tariff reform, and always have been, and will always be. How would I reduce the surplus? I answer frankly that the tariff ought to be carefully revised with a view correct any inequalities or incongruities that have grown out of the change of values ation to the Emperor, which will be of a since the passage of the Act of 1883; that every imported article which does not ompete with our domestic industry, and is essential to the comfort and wants of our people, should be placed upon the try which does not compete with our own productions should be specially selected for the free list.

Cheer in San Francisco.

ght, 1888, by the California Associated Press. New York, February 9th.—The Washington correspondent of the Star says many pleasant things about San Francisco in connection with the proposition to hold the democratic National Convention in that sympathy for the sufferers under the city. He says that the Pacific coast may carry off the prize, if it has seventeen votes oledged as reported, for it requires only wenty-four votes to settle the matter, and San Francisco expects votes from Pennsylvania and Maryland. The inducements offered by the Pacific coast people are very flattering. The event would undoubtedly be celebrated in grand style.

Politically, the promise is that the Democratic cause on the coast would receive great impetus by reason of the gathering of the party leaders there. The fear has been All but One of the Mare Island Places

Your committee finds considerable complaint about the expense of street improvements, and as a compromise between muddy and nearly impassable streets and full graveled streets and cobbled gutters, we recommend the experiment be tried of graveling the center of graded streets (for a width of eighteen feet), and while this may not be perfection, it will be a great improvement on the present condition of the streets. The report was upon motion accepted and adopted.
City Trustee Ryan said, referring to the report, that the city had already enjoyed experience in graveling the center of the street as recommended, having so graveled Tenth street near the city cemetery, and it proved a failure, as the gravel was so soon covered with mud that the gravel did not amount to much. The width of graveled space should not be less than twenty-five feet. Anything less than that would be too narrow for teams to pass well. He thought that even then, streets graveled i

Joseph Steffens inquired of Mr. Ryan whether, if a street were improved gener-ally, but a majority of the residents upon two blocks protested, the Trustees had the notwithstanding the protest.

Mr. Ryan replied that if the improvement was made upon both sides of the two supposed blocks, then the Trustees had power under the law to ignore the protests and order the work to be done Referring to the clause in the report of the committee which complains of the garbage in the alleys, etc., Mr. Ryan said that it was impossible to keep the alleys clean when the residents were guilty of the acts referred to, and took no pride in seeing their surroundings kept clean. Advice to Mothers.—Mrs. Winslow's SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, aliays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhoa, whether arising from teething or other causes. There is on exhibition in the show window of Wienstock, Lubin & Co. a fine large posed of by tickets as a premium in aid of he excursion fund of the Sacrament pupils should each week make studies from nature. To do this effectively they hav to arrange for transportation to the foot-hills, up and down the river, to suburban of a common fund, and to replenish this the pupils have secured this fine pictur and propose to sell it as described might well have placed a higher price upo as it is one of the best works yet fre Mr. Jackson's studio. It is entitled "A Trout Stream in the Sierras." The view is from just above Soda Springs on the head-waters of the American river, and is a careful study made by the artist last summer. In finish, warmth, detail and color he has done nothing better, and the drawing is especially admirable. In landscapes Mr. Jackson is making as rapid, if not greater, advancement than any California artist now called to memory. An evidence of this is found in the fact that some of his Sierra views have been selected from among hundred of others, for reproduction in the new artotype work, "Picturesque California." Whoever secures the picture will possess a work of art of high merit, and have the consciousness also of aiding the School of Design, which has not one-half the attention from the Sacramento public that it deserves, a fact upon which Eastern visitors to the Art Gallery comment freely, re marking that such an institution so locate in most Eastern cities would be considered a matter of exceeding local pride, and be fostered and aided with great liberality. and the whole power of this Court will be used to bring about such a result. I am willing to continue this case until the Tayor case can be decided, in order that th woman may be used as a witness if needed. In this connection, W. A. Anderson submits the following: "That was a strange order of Judge Buckley, to arrest the French woman Louise Monin. It was given as a reason that she is a necessary witness in the strange of William Wilson Single Strange of Wilson Wilson Sin he vagrancy case of William Wilson. She has given her testimony in that case, and a verdict and judgment rendered. True, an appeal has been taken, but Section 1466 of the Penal Code provides that an appeal can only be heard upon a statement. No wit-nesses are ever called or sworn. The appellate Court may either affirm the jud ment or reverse it, and can order a new trial—in the Superior Court only. But this s a contingency too remote for the exer-cise of any jurisdiction of the Police Court In misdemeanors triable in Police Courts there is no authority or power vested in those Courts to arrest or detain witnesses The only authority is in examination cases, under Section 878 of the Penal Code, which, on the holding of a defend-ance at any such trial. The poor woman however, is the victim and is locked up in default of friends or bail, ostensibly upo charges of 'exhibiting,' and for which alleged offense she has already paid the penalty. A search among the variou sections of the Penal Code and the Penal Ordinances fails to disclose any such an offense as 'exhibiting,' What is evidently ntended by this ambiguous charge is the iolation of a provision of Ordinance 17 lating to women standing at or being in he vicinity of the doors or windows of isreputable houses. It would seem to be ore in accord with substantial justice to stitute proceeding against the partie who are alleged to have offended, if any such there be. If any one has attempted to dissuade a witness, or one who may be ne a witness, from attending upon any trial, he or she can be prosecuted unde

Yesterday morning a full-developed case when the case of Louise Monin was called, of small-pox was discovered in a lodginghouse, and he immediately proceeded to investigate. Wednesday he entered the lodging-house and inquired if a man by the name of Lyons lived there. He was greeted by an individual who said his name was Lyons. Upon the surgeon's telling the man his mission, the latter laughed and said: "Well, if you think I

The ambulance is an ordinary-sized wagon, covered with black oilcloth, and is almost air-tight. It is provided with blankets and mattresses so that patients can be carried without any injury. As soon as the ambulance wagon was seen at the place and its errand was made known, the public generally gave the place

It has been ascertained that the first one to give notice of this case was a lady who resides in Washington. Hilton lives over there, and while tending to his patient would, during spare moments, go back and forth from the room to his house. About three days ago he went across the river and, stopping at a friend's house, he informed the lady that he was attending to a man that had the small-pox. Upon receiving this startling information Hilton was or-dered from the premises. The lady imme diately sent word to the authorities. Late last evening it was rumored that Hilton had gone from the hospital and was at his home in Yolo. Such proved to be the fact, and the Mayor notified the police to arrest the man if he again placed his foot in Sacramento. The bridge-tender was also notified to warn Hilton not to come into Sacramento again. The citizens of Washington ought to take this individual, bind him hand and foot and cast him in the Meeting-Inducements for Exhibits. Jos. HAHN & CO., Druggists, corner th and J streets, Sacramento, Cal. ds-TThSly The Excursion Committee of the Naional Educational Association met on Wednesday evening, those present being J. J. Haley, President; William White, Secretary; James O'Connor, Fred. M. Campbell, T. B. White, George Metcalfe, J. H. Brist, A. J. Manney, D. B. Lackey, J. H. Prior, A. L. Mann and D. B. Jackson. a committee whose duty it is to present the views of the Excursion Committee with egard to the best manner of securing the advantage of the excursion rates to the chers of California. Two more will be added to this committee by the President. Mr. O'Connor was in favor of closing the chools one week before the meeting of the lational Association, so that the teachers f this city and of the State could be present at the meeting. Several other gentlemen expressed their views on the matter, saying hat the local teachers who went on excur-ions with the Eastern teachers would have extended to them the benefits of the beap excursion rates. Fred M. Campbell announced that 100,-000 copies of a bulletin were to be issued This bulletin would contain general in formation about California, the excursion rates, steamship rates, programme of the meeting and other items of interest, and would be distributed throughout the East and Colorado. The cost will be $6,000. o be paid by advertisements. Mr. O'Conner had prepared a circular to be sent to all State and County Superintendents and active educators generally regarding the national exhibition of school work in its various departments, prior and during the session of the National Educaional Association. The committee desires to have such an exhibit of the work done y the older and more populous States which are to be educationally united with this State. A $500 cash prize, with diploma, will be awarded to the State or Territory sending the best representation in accord-ance with the general plan already issued and the committee trusts that some distant State may thus be enabled to pay the expenses of sending an excellent exhibit California will make the best exhibit she

y. Guests served with all the delicacies of e season. Everything first-class. Wedding neers and Cakes a Specialty. and information concerning the exhibit.-S. F. Chronicle. Letter from Amador County. EDS. RECORD-UNION: The fire in the Amador Consolidated mines in this place is still raging. Several attempts have been made to extinguish it, but so far they have been unsuccessful. There are probably about 300 men thrown out of employment by the accident. Another rich strike is reported in the ew London mine, and we shall probably ive a quartz mill on that valuable property the spring.

The Chicago company are sinking on neir mine, under the superintendency of ohn Cupps. What the prospect is of sering a paying mine I am unable to say. The Alpine is still in a dormant state, nt report says that the work on this valable property will soon be resumed, and vill then be pushed vigorously. The Engcompany who bought the Alpine at lymouth have also purchased the Potosi uartz mine, at Drytown—or, I might say, st of that place, as it is on the mothe ode. They are now working the ore, and is paying a handsome profit to the owners. think that the Amador Consolidated nines, Empire and Pacific, will soon start o work, as I believe the fire will soon be o work, as I believe the extinguished. Respectfully, E. S. Hall. Plymouth, February 8, 1888.

subject of planting sour orange trees as shade trees, has been visiting San Francisco, and while there said to an Examiner reporter:

"I was much pleased with what I saw about Oroville in the way of orange-growering. I consider that region exceedingly well adapted to oranges. The flower of the firit is unusually fine, and if they can stand as cold weather as you have had this winter, which is now conclusively proved why, there is no fear about oranges any winter in that region. In fact, the cold spell will act as a stimulus.

"The orange trees in Florida two years ago were injured somewhat by cold weather, so that the following year we had but from one-halt to two-thirds of a crop.

"Our trees are now in bloom and blooming very full. It looks as though we would have a very full crop.

"Our lemon crop promises very big also. The lemon industry is young. It is only six or eight years since they were planted able than the orange business. Our lemons come in just while there is a scarcity in the general market.

"We pick them green in August, and put them into a sweat-root and cure for about two weeks, when they come out bright and yellow. Lemons are better picked green, and in this way they will keep for months. "Orange and Lemon islands in Lake Weir, which cover about fifty acres, when the country was discovered, were almost completely overgrown with wild oranges."

J. B. Redding Explains the Dismissal of the Suit Against J. Routier. The San Francisco Call of yesterday had the following: Judge Wallace a few days ago, on motion of the attorney for the plaintiff, dismissed the suit of Joseph D. Redding vs. Fish Commissioner Routier, an action to declare the defendant isurper of office. Mr. Routier received his ommission during the administration of he late Governor Bartlett, and the preser Governor appointed as his successor Mr Redding, but the first named gentleman declined to vacate the office, hence the suit. It would appear from the dismissal of the action that Mr. Redding had abandonded the contest, but in an interview with Call reporter last evening he stated that he had no such intentions. "The reason I brought suit against Mr Routier for usurpation of office," said Mr Redding, "was that when I presented my redentials to the Fish Com asked for a seat in the Board, Mr. Harvey voted against my admission and I was then impelled to take legal proceedings, setting forth my claims. A few days ago, at the request of Governor Waterman, I went to Sacramento and was informed that he be

"He chose J. K. Orr, a gentleman well known throughout the State, and well qualified to fill the position. Messrs. Sherwood, Orr and myself will organize and proceed with the business of the Commission in a few days. When Governor Waterman appointed Mr. Orr I dismissed my suit against Mr. Routier, because I knew that ctl Messrs. Orr and Sherwood would recognize my appointment, and we would constitute the Board. Mr. Routier will have "The decision of Judge Wallace in the Pilot Commissioners' case does not decide the question of the Fish Commissioners

The appointment in our case is laid down in the Political Code as being at the Gov ernor's pleasure, while in the Pilot Com-missioners' case there are additional sections of the Code possibly giving the Chief Magistrate of the State further authority in the premises. The Governor states that he will not approve any of the bills of Mr. Routier or Mr. Harvey that may be hereafter presented; therefore a contest on their part would only clog the wheels of the Commission, and prevent the work neces-sary to keep alive one of the most important industries of the State."
